LOCAL TAXES

MEALS TAX

Every restaurant, caterer, operator of convenience store(s) or grocery delicatessen(s), being individual, partnership, corporation, etc., engaged in the business of selling meals is required to register with the Commissioner of the Revenue, collect the tax, and file the appropriate returns. As of 7/1/15 6%.

TRANSIENT OCCUPANCY TAX

Every hotel, motel, bed & breakfast, or other lodging place that, for compensation, furnishes lodging to any transients shall levy on each and every transient, the appropriate tax. Those entities collecting tax shall register with the Commissioner of the Revenue and file the proper returns. As of 10/1/25 8%.

SHORT TERM RENTAL TAX

Every person engaged in the short-term rental business is required to register with the Commissioner of the Revenue, collect the tax, and file the appropriate returns. 1%

BUSINESS LICENSE TAX

The Commissioner of the Revenue assesses the Business, Professional, and Occupational License. Most license taxes are levied upon the gross receipts, and the rate varies with the type of business you intend to engage in. To avoid penalties and interest, you are required to obtain a business license within 30 days of when you begin to conduct business. You also will need a business license if you receive a Misc.1099 and/or file a Schedule C. A business license is required for each definite place of business. The license is renewable each year on or before March 1. License covers Jan 1 - Dec 31.

BUSINESS TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY

TAX & MACHINERY & TOOLS

The City of Lexington levies a tax on tangible personal property and machinery & tools employed in a trade or business (furniture, fixtures, machinery and tools). A return must be filed with the Commissioner of the Revenue that itemizes personal property and/or equipment employed in the business giving the date of acquisition and original acquisition costs. You must file the return by March 15. Tax rate is $4.25 per $100 of assessed value. Assessment begins Jan 1.
